

SOLO & DUET SELECTION PROCESS SEASON 2023-2024

Swiss Aquatics – Artistic Swimming announces herewith the procedure for the solo and duet selections of national teams for the season 2023/2024. This document is based on the selection policy and the general selection process for the season.

GENERAL RULES

Athlete must be part of the national team to be considered for the duet and/or solo selection.

The results are calculated as follows. The swimmer(s) with the highest total score of the below chosen competitions, will represent Switzerland. Further result specifications are mentioned in the concerned category. If there is only one solo/duet entered in the selection, the selection committee will consult and decide if the selection will be approved. If there are two parties entered in the selection process and one party falls ill/is injured, the selection committee will decide how to proceed.

Representing Switzerland is an honor, as the swimmers will be competing internationally and be measured with the best of the best. Being selected to also represent Switzerland in a solo or duet discipline is an additional honor and responsibility.

ELITE SELECTION

Target competitions: European Championships 2024

The results are calculated per discipline (solo tech = a discipline, solo free = another discipline). Therefore, two different swimmers/pairs can be chosen to represent Switzerland.
